this website... to hack another website that was assigned by a teacher for you to hack? Fucked up broken English aside, do you realize how ridiculous that sounds? Even if it were for "educational purposes", which I can almost guarantee your story is bogus asf, why the fuck would anyone do your college assignment for you? If you can't do your own school work, why would people from this website want to help you pass absolutely free so you can go out and get a job and waste some employers money?

You've made this post 3 times OP, dont get banned.

I'm all for breakin the law, as are many other people on this website, but don't fucking spam stupid requests(lies) like this and expect results. If you want something done, you need to have something to offer.

Well fuck You .U can understand My english Then fuck you bro :)

Yeah Its my Assignment And I will get job in my country not in you fucking country :) GO get A Life Fucking Shit Head :)

People Don't Ask me Anything Yeah i Can give Something But they Don't Offer So how the hell do i know what they want fucking shit

You have no excuse. HF shoves rules in your face the minute you sign up. If you dont comply you get rep fucked and banned.

And sometimes people hack shit for others for free here for sure.. When the requests make fucking sense.
