You get it by posting on your own threads, AFAIK.

Only on your own? I always thought it could be on any thread. EDIT: From the small sample I looked at, looks like you are correct.

Congrats OP

Congrats OP

I did some research because I was salty that I haven't gotten a Clover award. It's both, but I have seen people win more by posting on their own posts. Not too sure but it's just what I observed, not an actual statistic.

Must've been your lucky day OP! Congratulation
