Did anyone manage to cop?

I got myself a pair during the drop in Australia.

EDIT : for those wondering why its $340, its converted into AUD.

Toby Flenderson - February 24, 2017, 2:46 pm

Good shit man, I'm in north America so I gotta wait a bit for the drop but hoping to cop...you do this manually?

The concept is clear. You spend $880 excluding shipping for 4 pairs of shoes. You can instantly sell them at $1,300 a pop. That's easy math. $4,000 for less than 8 hours of work. That is a no brainier. Fuck what the shoes look like. I know exactly what a quick $4,000 in cash looks like.....Amazing.

The caveat is having the servers, proxies, and bots in place for the purchase. I only ran two on Adidas, with a cop rate of 0. Next time it will be AIO with 2-3 servers, 100 proxies, and a lot of TLC. To get multiple pairs you need a different CC/PP, name, shipping address, email, phone number, and all that good stuff for each purchase.

I was thinking a few Google phone numbers, a couple vanilla visas, short term PO box or something similar, and a lot of friends IRL.

They announce them as they come.

Adidas confirmed is the ONLY way to pick up pairs unless you have a backdoor plug.

Usually states like Cali and New York are the more major ones.

I just quick sold them, don't need the cash.

No I called you an idiot because you could've made another $400.

But I guess I'm the mental one.

Anyone else keep your pairs they'll be up to turtle dove amount soon.

My friend got super lucky and got a pair, I didn't.

He has been getting spam offers for 1.7k but he is trying to 2k.
