KillerSavage - February 25, 2017, 12:56 pm

Hi I am Jay E*(preventing from getting researched LEL), I have been more than fascinated in computer science since I was a boy, I specialize in removing malwares from computer systems within my spare time through the days I live. I found HF as an place of happiness.

The reason for my inactive last year is because I've lost a relative, That lady has taken very much care of me when I was a kid growing up,it was such a hard time for me to get over the lost of my aunt, without a mother she was the only lady I could ever called mom, so i spent time at her grave during christmas and so on. ?

So I joined HF because I am very passionate in what I do, I made a good amount of friends on HF, I can give a decent shout out to my friend DOGE for being kind in letting me gain some money, he gave me a few of his UB PSD to sell because I was unable to earn some money in different occasions and I also thank TheChief for motivating me. I try my best in order to never gain a negative REP on HF because am a very generous person and I wish to stay forever on HF.?

I wish to sell & give away some stuffs:

UB designs
Pokemon Go accs
Rat Source(Custom built)

I always wanted to have a mentor,a friend and a brother to guide me on HF, never give up on me,show me a few tricks and a one to always be there for as a brother(BroMance). In my life I have always had some good ideas for android applications but guess what I can't code Android not one bit(if anyone code android LMK). This is KillerSavage and I am here to stay to HF.

If you have any questions or chats anything always feel free to HMU. I'll be at da grave ina few hours because am still shocked of the lost of my aunt. :(??

PM for skype
