It's easy, some methods just require more effort than the other. We have incredibly simple methods that work as well. Just choose one you like and use it.

Limit depends on the method and your location.

I've eaten 75% of my meals through UberEats over the past month.

The amount of rides I've been able to give to my friends to get home when they're too drunk is amazing.

Technically yes but I wouldn't eat that much unhealthy stuff. :P

None are patched and basically never will be.

Yes it's safe, though using alternate info doesn't hurt.

I can't speak for the other methods discussed in this eBook as I have not tested them, but this 100% works for UBEREats.

99% of the eBooks sold on this site are junk, but this is one of the good ones that actually work.

It's written in a simple and easy to use way, and just works.

Now I can get free food, or close to free food, anytime I want.

My food is currently being prepared at the restaurant, and will be delivered within 20 minutes.

For UberEats? More than 5$? If so, would you mind messaging me and letting me know which variables you are using. Thank you.

sourdiesel87 - March 9, 2017, 2:24 pm

I'm not even able to sign up to uber with bluestacks lol. On the sign up, It keeps looping me to verify the phone # which i do, then asks me for name/email/ then loops me back to phone verify. I don't see how this works for everyone but me lol I must be retarded. It'd be nice if some other people in US could share which method they are using and what versions of things are being used so I can replicate exactly how they are doing it, because as of now, ive tried everything for 4 days and haven't gotten 1 account to work.

I initially bought the methods a little while ago. While I know they worked for a ton of people, it simply didn't work out well for me. Lucio was then nice enough to refund me :)

Very nice methods... I imagine that these methods don't just stop at Uber, i reckon these could be used with other promotions / accounts etc... After you read up and get to grips with it, you will see what i mean.

Gutted i don't have any UberEats near me :D
