Thread: Best Screen Recorder?

ProtonRouting - February 26, 2017, 6:12 pm

I'm sure I can find a crack for it, what do you suggest for the best screen recorder, need one for a project that I'm working on.

Already got Sony Vegas Pro 14 for editing.

That?

Thanks, I'll use that.

OBS is really good, and so is Action. I'm pretty sure I have a few Action keys that have barely been used, and since action allows people to use the same code like 15 times before it's blacklisted, I can lend you the key for free.

I almost said FRAPS out of old reflex... ah nostalgia.

Go with OBS but don't forget to record in .mp4 otherwise Sony Vegas won't be able to open the files.

I personally like XSplit Broadcaster, very simple and easy to use.

I think OP doesn't mind.

Thing is, OBS is arguably better and free. Also easily and frequently updated.
