Thread: Won a contest on HF for the first time

Apocryphon - February 27, 2017, 7:15 am

I've joined a lot of contests in the past but I've never won any. However when I logged in yesterday I saw a PM from yaltmark saying "100 BTC WINNER" I was like uhh what's this and when I opened it out I found out that I won his contest.

I'm so happy for winning something for the first time and I would like to thank yaltmark for all the contests he held, this guy is really awesome. He is helping the community a lot!

That's sick, would've loved to win the contest. I joined as well, would've bought an award or something. Sadly I didn't, but congrats you won mate.

Awesome giveaway, I've won like 5 giveaways already in my time being here, nothing valued at $100 though.

Bravo bato!

I won a black shadow script giveaway beat that at the end of 2014 I joined a $50 bitcoin contest and a totally forgot about it. A month later I get a message about it and was so happy lmao
