"Something is going to happen" of course something happens but its underground.

If some channel indeed revealed info then that chan would be strictly observed

Because being a contrarian is a natural human trait and people just follow any bullshit that goes against convention to make them feel special and critical. It's not a new thing.

Yeah wanted to mention that.

Hard to see people living in their own fantasy, state of fear, etc.
But technically so does everyone (Live in their own fantasy)

It's clear you're very manipulated by the click bait accounts because that's exactly what they want you to think.

More videos != more legit. It means more clicks and more money for the author.

You saying things you dont even know tf.

Your making statements with no evidence.

I talked to one of them and not all of them do it for the money.

+ I just found out about this how tf can I be manipulated.

You clearly said you don't think it's click bait because all of their videos are clickbait (wut):

Well that's some pretty odd stuff to say the least. I'm assuming they get the traffic just out of plain curious people. I mean it's kind catchy somewhat.

Btw what OS are you using? Looks interesting.

What I meant to say is that some people actual believe in this.
Legit post videos like of them talking and going on trips to prove it.
While some are just there 4 the profit.
