Most of ptp sites goes down because they are doing it wrong, also they offer ridiculous cpm which makes no sense

Goodluck with your project. But tbh the designs of the website and the thread are just bad.

Either way will be registering right now.

So what you got to do is sharing links, and for every 1000 clicks you get 20 cents I don't understand it. Can you please explain?

Thanks!

All you have to do is send traffic to the promoting url that you receive on signup, and for each 1000 views you get around 0.3$, sometime you get up to 1$ it depends on our bidding system. Also if you have a website with traffic, you can place our popup code. Let me know if you need anything else
