What is Your Pet Peeve?

My pet peeve is when someone says they will pay for a graphic design and you spend time out your own day to make whatever they needed done, show them what you've created and hear a response back saying "Ohh I like it" and then never hearing anything back from them pisses me off. Like what is the purpose of even asking for something and wasting peoples time?

I don't know if anyone else has the same feeling like this towards something else or if they are under the same boat I'm in; so I was just curious what your pet peeves are.

Guys asking for my Skype/ time/ discord / prices / information about eWhore mentoring.

Promosing me to contact me at the day we agreed upon and then don't message me at all.

And members who act "HQ" while Staff member reputated them for their bullshit as well as being accused of fake/ bad services and/or mentoring/products... I wont name any members to respect their privacy.

When people ask you to repeat something and don't listen you.

Noobies advising people to reinstall their operating system the second they get malware. And businesses that don't store updated backups.

(Happens most of the time on Skype or Xbox) but mine is when someone calls your name everytime they want to tell you something instead of just saying the sentence. You always have to respond by saying "Yes?"
