If you don't want to pay bitcoins

Buy it with PayPal or through eBay

IF I DO SCAM LIKE THIS GUY SAYS

SIMPLY use your buyer protection to get a refund

I'm a legit aeller

Snooper - March 8, 2017, 5:25 pm

I'm still interested in purchasing this but what has me worried is if you don't pay with ebay/paypal and the package is lost you're basically fucked?

Anyways, hope this is really resolved.

Well I would have refunded him a portion.

Not a full due to me losing money in sending him the product and costing a sale.

But went straight to a ""SCAM"" report after I've tried helping him and I've been responding late for a few good reasons.

I'm a legit seller

If you don't fuck me I don't fuck you

Simple

CodeineCrazy? - March 8, 2017, 5:30 pm

why did you close your thread if you didnt scam him?

The first one?

I closed it for a few reasons

1: when I make these sims active I tend to limit how many I sell a month or certain period of time. So that there isn't a buttload out there. To keep it under control.

2: I didn't get much sales st first with HF because everyone either wants a vouch copy or always promising to buy then poof. So I just took it off

3: I started doing more sales with Craigslist since person to person. I'd show in person

4: eBay :)

But then I decided to brin it back

And getting the same response.

So yeah lol

edit thread (added skype screenshots) OP says he now feels inclined not to help since I opened scam report XD

Simpleright and you not responding for a month and then a week is helpful. No refund of any sort was discussed and no proof of tracking

How can I help on a lost package?

You expect me to keep tracking on over a month old shipment?

And when I wasn't responding where was I? I already told you this lol.

And I'm sorry my life has shit that comes up, and I don't put it on hold just to help you out! I've been delayed on all my people I'm barely catching up.

There's nothing I can do to help you.

I sold a legit product

My part was done when it was sent out

USPS lost your package not me.

Best I could do is a partial refund but that would be useless because you wouldn't close dispute and still call me a scammer.
