Really nice thread man. If I ever have any questions, this is the first place I will be and I know this will be of help to others on the forum.

Thanks ?

Voxi - March 6, 2017, 4:09 am

Glad to be part of this help desk.

Depending on if you own them or not you will probably need to contact Twitter in regards to wanting them deleted, won't be hard if they are violating the TOS.

Shauny - March 7, 2017, 9:48 am

They are mine from a while ago.

question

is it necessary to use a vps on a vm or is that just a fucking waste of time

Using a a VPS through a VM would be better for privacy, I wouldn't say it's waste of time just depends on what exactly you need it for.
