Thread: Is there a specific reason why L33T doesn't show up as an additional usergroup?

The Poseidon - March 7, 2017, 4:14 pm

Have wondered since I have upgraded to UB3R why L33T doesn't show up as an additional usergroup on someone's profile?

If this has been pointed out before or if there is a specific reason, please point me in the direction because I am curious.

Thank you.

When you are upgraded to Ub3r you are moved out of the L33T group.

I understand but how comes the additional usergroup for EP1C is still in place but the usergroup L33T just vanishes?

That is because UB3R replaces L33T.
