When your hungry but not, What do you eat?

Or what do you like to eat. other than real food, or something

Personally i prefer cutting a lemon in half and add salt on top and just suck the jucice < not gay

Or slce a cucumber in half, or pieces and just add citric acid ontop. and eat that :)

Sometimes after a long day at work I'll go get a greasy bacon cheeseburger with a milkshake and just cry in my car about how shitty adulthood is.

Sorry bro, it wasn't. (Was your 999th post)

I mostly eat bananas or some other fruits. If I don't have anything fruity at home I'll switch to snacks like crackers or chips.

To live a bit healthier I eat fruits, if there are none left I allow myself to eat something unhealthy.

EDIT: Club crackers are the shit.

Lays, I guess. I eat them but I don't really enjoy them.

I love white cheddar cheese its pistachio nuts all the way

Looks good bro! thats bomb.

Definetly, if they are precracked then theyre good af, but if you need to crack them yourself. then fuck no, time consuming and your mouth is dead after.
