Most of us have already watched it and yeah It's a solid anime ;)

Yui-Senpai - March 12, 2017, 12:27 pm

I don't see why it is so highly rated, most of my friends ended up dropping it. I liked it but didn't love it.

SixteenWeasels - March 12, 2017, 2:38 pm

Death Note is a good starter but that's about it.

Obli - March 12, 2017, 2:41 pm

Dropped it when L died, it wasn't as interesting anymore.

MightyOne - March 12, 2017, 2:48 pm

Yha i liked it alot ! watched the movies aswell, great storyline and a heck of a twist.

I love the Concept of the notebook.. seems too, realistic? :D

Death note is what turns a lot of people into anime fans, it's a good watch.

Yup. It was because the climax was kind of anti-climatic though.

half episodes was awesome and really worth, after one specific episode all got suck but i will not spoiler xD saw this post and decided to finally watch it i can say the first 10 eps were good but then it slowly became trash and i struggled to watch after L died there was really no point to continue watching because the last sort of arc in the series was really bad and it was a drag i can say this series is super overrated but thats just my opinion and the last two eps made zero sense if you really think about it but without spoiling too much thats my lil mini review

Genoboy - March 15, 2017, 9:47 pm

Will watch Death Note now. Hope everything goes fun. I watched Tokyo ghoul too, but I dropped it. I find it not worthy to be watched anymore.

Gazing - March 15, 2017, 10:45 pm

This was the first and pretty much only Anime I have ever watched and it was amazing.

illuminati? - March 16, 2017, 1:10 am
