Thread: Scammed by Wizard. 10\$ uid=3437953

Nagath - March 13, 2017, 7:33 am

Username: Wizard.

URL: Wizard.

Contacted Wizard for a logo re-design, he told me it was an easy job and he can do that for an on sale price of 10$ (3/02/2017)

After a fast review on the first try he went missing and im already waiting for this logo re-design

Spoiler \(Click to View\)<https://imgur.com/a/Tvybn>

I know its only 10$ but i hate being ignored after paying for a small logo re-design. Could have used the money for another legit gfx designer

Waiting for the logo or just my money back

It's sad that people would actually scam for $10...

perk. - March 13, 2017, 8:50 am

Oh shit lel, been busy as fuck.

Actually the user told me he wanted an e-sports logo, after he paid me the $10 usually I'd charge $40+ for an e-sports logo. I gave him multiple revisions in which he wanted this and that changing every time, I had more customers at this time, and honestly I didnt have time to be fucking around with 4254656334 revisions for $10.

Thanks for understanding. A partial refund is available upon request?

Why would you go first to a non upgraded user when there are free middlemans who can handle this for you very easily?

Hit me up next time when you got a deal, I will middleman your deal and you will stay safe and happy as the second party as well.

I dont appreciate how you connect non upgraded users with "none trusted" im trusted, I just dont like doing 6+ hours of work for $10 as its not too efficient, I've offered a partial refund to OP, gtfo.

If you do provide a service, I guess both parties should be happy.

You ask for a good price and you make your client happy.

You don't ask for $10 and spend 6 hours for that design that can be easily made in 2 hours.

And why you didn't refund the full amount to the OP but just partially if he really doesn't likes what he paid for?

And also, moderate your language.

Its not a moderate forum, why do I need to moderate my language.

You should moderate the was you - rep because you think it makes your balls bigger.

Im pretty sure he didnt give back the full amount cause OP cant give him back time . He made a few modifications to the logo and tried his best to care the needs of OP. Im with Wizard on offering a partial refund but full refund. nope

Nagath - March 13, 2017, 9:58 am

Actually you gave me 1 revision that was kinda bad <http://prnt.sc/e4ma8q> and made in minutes... i guess.

Im not saying you are a scammer but at least answer on skype without ignoring every time.
And it wasn't an E-sports logo and you said that 10$ was fine. Just say no next time if thats not enough!
