Thread: The Best of Omni | Savage Edition | Updated 7/5/2017 | MUST READ NO CLICKBAIT

Leroy Jethro Gibbs - March 13, 2017, 7:25 pm

So this thread was originally for finding fucking savage quotes from Omni. Now that many of you have posted your choices, I have now made an album with most of your suggestions.

All of the greatest savage responses I have got from you guys.

Link to Imgur Album: <https://imgur.com/a/yjLm1>

Last Album Update: 6/26/2017

I've also added images with the date for all of the entries I make.

If you want to submit anymore funny ass replies by Omni, go ahead and post on the thread either a link to the post or a screenshot of the entire reply! Special thanks to all the members that contributed to this. We shall laugh together!

Read it, Omni's post is #8.

Holy shit. I always knew Omni was savage just by the many PMs I have exchanged with him but this takes the cake.

He threatened them, then the "Root Admin" responds with

Quote:You can contact me and we will send you our general counsel contact information.

Threats will not be taken lightly.

To which Omni replies

Quote:Looking over your License and features of your software you have some severe problems. For one there is no mention of IP blocking or any type of blocking of websites. Users are installing your software which has malicious intent to prevent users from viewing sites without any real criteria. You don't have one word of that in the features or License Agreement. Your software does things the user isn't aware of. That's going to be an issue and you should clean up your act. I am completely outraged over the responses and behavior of MWB.
(rekt)

Not to mention the moderator linking two forums and quoting some shit it ends with the Root Admin saying

Quote:The matter has been resolved and the IP block has been removed. :(

Thank you for everyone's contributions.

The Root Admin even included a sadface emoji in there!

I would love to know how the conversation went between Omni and their "General Counsel" or did they not even speak to Omni but a lawyer being retained by Omni? Either way; it must have been an interesting conversation with the last post from the Root Admin declaring the "IP block has been removed. ??? "
