As mentioned on the title " beware Of DIVINE KEYLOGGER ".

They are selling someting who's still in Beta version. They ran into bugs especially with FTP settings. You won't be able to receive screenshots via FTP and the logs are unreadable (there's no space between words)

When I complained about it, he told me that I should have ask the question to him before ? SERIOUSLY ? is it even a question to ask when you are selling a " functional keylogger ? Then he deleted me from skype and closed divine keylogger thread.

This is how you take care of your business Peter, not nice at all ?

i can't post an image yet but if you need examples, contact me for screenshots.

Well, Marwix I could also open a thread about how poorly i've been treated with Jlog...

I bought it for password recover. The guy i spoke with told me it was working and supposedly the day after the option was disabled.

You advertise things that you don't offer yet, Why don't you advertise it as " BETA "

I even remember that on your rocketr page you wrote #1 Keylogger sold HackForums " yeah right.

I explained it to your team and they refunded me only $13 because it couldn't satafified my needs and from what i see the option is still not functional.
