how i pay you ?

you must hack into the page , show me proof via TV , then i send you the money and you will give me full access to the page , that is all !.

A 220k page can easily be sold for more than $500 op.
please give a better offer/reason.

Not to mention if they have business manager it'll be that much difficult. Fb has set up a lot of newer security checks with the whole business upgrading.

you can't "hack" a page you're going to have to joost it. Which is frowned upon, obviously. Why do you want to steal this page?
