Thread: is ewhoring risky?

Off-White™ - March 15, 2017, 9:25 am i have been ewhoreing from time to time for ages now and ive just thought about it and is it easy to get involved with the police because of it? i have never used a VPN or anything and i use snapchat to ewhore, so the question is, is it hard to get caught by police/ arrested and shit?

Xaliy - March 15, 2017, 9:30 am

No ... I was not yet busted the way .. is like watching a porn on Y * .. so greyzone: D ...

Vittorio - March 15, 2017, 9:31 am

Yes you may turn gay and love dick.

Malaise - March 15, 2017, 9:33 am nahh dude i dont think its riskyy

Gambia - March 15, 2017, 10:33 am

Sexting is not illegal, so no there is no risk. The only risk is if you're a minor selling the pics, and even then no one will be able to find out that you're a minor, let alone do anything about it. This is probably the most risk-free money-making method you'll find.

M9Bayonet - March 15, 2017, 10:34 am not really risky, low chance of getting caught and nothing is technically "illegal"

Delupara - March 15, 2017, 10:37 am

If a "client" finds out that the little Sherly has more than just good looks then maybe fraud charges (at the very worst).

of course you'd have to be stupid to get to this point, there are good ways to hide yourself while ewhoring.

then you might get a crazy fuck who wants to dox you/ find you IRL (I heard stories about a scenario like it, but no real events).

what good ways would you recommend to hide whilst ewhoring?

TruthNLMB - March 15, 2017, 1:53 pm

I don't see it being that risky but it has its cons

It's wire fraud.

But the chances of someone reporting you is very very low. Even if you were to scam them it's still low. People get scammed thousands online and never get justice. Are the police really going to pursue a $30 deal? Probably not. That's why it's very important to use a legal pack and say your age is over 18. If not it goes from just a $30 deal to a child pornography case

Press the Button - March 15, 2017, 7:43 pm

I would say its not risky tbh.

As long as you aren't scamming a lot and blackmailing.

ilovedmo - March 15, 2017, 7:47 pm

I always thought that ewhoring was a little gay honestly getting men turned on for money idk if i could do that lol.

Skagit - March 15, 2017, 7:57 pm

The only thing that you risk is impersonation but as long as you play it safe and don't do anything stupid you should be fine.

Autophobia - March 15, 2017, 8:06 pm

Honestly ewhoring is probably one of the safest ways to make money I truly wouldn't worry much about getting caught just make sure you're not using underage pics or claiming to be a minor.

Kashira - March 15, 2017, 8:13 pm

With all means ewhoring is medium tier compared to romance scamming, but it's still very illegal.

If a customer were to go out of their way, because he found out. You could seriously get f*cked.

The things you can be charged with.

Quote:Mail & Wire Fruad

If a man sends you money or gifts so that you can visit him when you never intended to do this in the first place, this is considered mail & wire fraud, which is a federal crime.

Emotional Distress

If the woman in the images that you were using discovers that you were posing as her and sully her "good name", she could claim that you caused her emotional distress in court.

Identity Theft

In addition to copyright infringement, using those stolen images to pose as someone you are not for the purpose of deceiving them into giving you money is identity theft.

Copyright Infringement

If you stole someone's image and are using it without their consent (especially for "commercial purposes"), this is copyright infringement.

Fraud/Misrepresentation

If someone signs up to a cam show that you claimed that you were on when in fact you were not really the one in the photos to begin with, this could be considered fraud.

Ugly Boy - March 16, 2017, 1:22 am

Think about it like its a road and you have to cross it to get some money you saw on the ground you can just run across the road to get the money or you can be smart look both ways etc then cross walking normally to get the money and walking back with the prize anyway all I'm saying is that a vpn wouldnt hurt and do some research on youtube about these things, there tons of docs talking about scammers that pretend to be women and men to ask for money and say they'll pay it back but never do, GL scream42 - March 19, 2017, 1:52 pm

no ! e-whoring is not illegal man !

AndreiCos - March 19, 2017, 2:00 pm

Nice, because I want to start E-Whoring and I'm glad to hear this.

Ultra Instinct - March 19, 2017, 6:25 pm

The chance of getting arrested is very low. Just use a vpn while you e-whore and you should be fine.

RepForums - March 19, 2017, 6:34 pm

its only risky if your doing the dumb shit, but just do your thing, act like a women and keep low, and do your methods don't start doing hardcore dumb shit and breaking laws.
