Thread: [\[WIP\] HackForums Style MyBB theme for 1.8 Series](#)

Nasyr - March 18, 2017, 2:22 pm

Alright so a wild idea came to mind when I was working on a new simple MyBB theme when this idea hit me a few weeks back. I used to love the older theme used here, as such I decided to make a newer version for MyBB 1.8. This includes some new changes to the header and general layout of the forums.

Since the previews shown below a new footer has been added and I've also made some more adjustments. I shall continue to update this thread until it is complete. I have also began progress on changing the Show Team page to have a new layout.

Also I have created a GitHub project for this development which can be located here - HackForums-1.8-MyBB-Theme. If you have any suggestions for this it would be awesome if you could submit them on GitHub as 'enhancement' through issues.

Please note at no point will this theme be released, this is a creation project in my free time. Omniscient created the theme for 1.6 series, I have made a similar using the same style. THIS THEME WILL NOT BE GIVEN OUT!

I like this theme! I think that the "updated" theme is a perfect fit for my website.

I do hope that this will be released as a paid version. It's worth it!

For the record... I'm not a 'n**ga'.

Yea, I can read. I visited his website, too.

What Nasyr stated on his website is a bit different than what he stated here in HF regarding the theme.

A case in point... go back to the original post and re-read the sentence where he mentions Github. Click on that link and read what it says in there.

So, do some research before you assume anything.

It doesn't matter lol regardless of what you're saying, at the end of the day he still stated HERE on this thread that he won't be giving it away. Then your thick ass comes along talking about some it'll be perfect for your site and you need it blah blah.

Edit; not trying to low quality post or argue on the thread but, seriously, you're being ridiculous.

You starting bashing me for "not reading"...

Therefore...

You are attempting to argue... your baseless point of "not reading" which has nothing to do with the thread topic.

So... stop arguing.

Keep this thread on-topic and take your nonsense elsewhere. Would definitely liked to see how you've progressed Nasyr.

I really like the 1.8 version man.

would love to see something like this

Omniscient - October 22, 2017, 8:51 pm

I need this so bad. It's a burning urge. I must install.

If he doesn't give it up then I'll build it again myself. I still have original files. :)

I cannot wait honestly lol, this is the weirdest feeling from HF, like I've never seen it this way and it's hard

Old glory memories condensed in a fresh purple theme.

I'd love to see this officially implemented.

Nasyr, keep up the good work!

Nasyr - October 23, 2017, 4:53 am

Going with the sexy original theme that was here.

Sadly, he seems pretty adamantly against that in the bottom of the thread.

This theme will not be released to the public, only to Omniscient upon his request.

TheDabDoctor - October 26, 2017, 12:11 am

This looks nice, excited to see the change.

Nasyr - January 15, 2018, 11:21 am

I am going to begin continued design of this theme, might as well finish it off.

PSXDeV - January 31, 2018, 2:38 am

this is really neat, good job

Cardano - January 31, 2018, 7:32 am

Looks too retro in my opinion, but good work for sure.

Hydraxus - February 3, 2018, 7:55 am

Theme looks nice, but just too much of a mixture between a new / retro type theme.

I think if you were to use one style or the other, the theme would greatly improve.
