So I just came across a torrent for the movie and am currently watching it now.

For anyone else that has seen it already, what do you think of it?

Currently I really like the new animation style and how the characters have changed in style.

Watched it a few days ago on masterani it was pretty good. Probably the best yugioh movie to come out since all the others sucked major ass.

Aigami is pretty cool he reminds me of Yami Bakura a bit.

I personally really liked how they did the animation style as well as how the new cards look.

Saw this in theaters in Jan. Was pretty fun watch, mad me super nostalgia feels-y towards the end when they say good bye to Téa
