Thread: Just bought a new watch

Stixio - March 19, 2017, 1:16 pm

So I posted a post about help with finding a nice watch, that I could go for.
And after a few hours, I have finally figured out which on to get.

So 1 hour a go, I purchased it. Its fucking lit, I felt in love with it atleast.

Tycks? And how long does it takes before it arrives?

I don't like watches like this purely because they give you a shit mechanism and make you pay for the brand when in reality it's worth at most $5

I really do like the design of this Dapper Reading DW.

Although I'd prefer an automatic watch with atleast 10 ATM waterproof.

But thats a self-preference. ?
