Thread: some kid i bullied at school pulled a gun on me

robotrobotrobot - March 20, 2017, 12:37 am

So I've been bullying this kid everyday pushing him into poles and harassing him, and today when I come to school I came early and he was there aswell, he told me to come to this room with him to sort the problem out. And he pulled a .357 on me.

He showed me that it was loaded and said if I ever talked to him again he'd put the bullet into my neck, and walked away.

It was fully loaded and he pulled the thing ready to shoot, he pointed it at my head

he said this exactly if you want to know

'IF YOU EVER TALK TO ME AGAIN ILL PUT THE BULLET IN YOUR FUCKING HEAD'

should I report to the police

You should stop being a cunt to other people perhaps? Or keep doing it and get what you deserve.

You should probably just stop bullying him. This is why kids are doing stupid stuff like this. Go to the police and I am sure he will put a bullet in you, so now it looks like you're being bullied. Karma is a serious bitch.

I thought the bully victim takes it out on the entire school not just the bully?
