Thread: Can You Upgrade using XMR and other cryptos?

Elitas - March 21, 2017, 9:51 am

According to the upgrades page, XMR is not an option to upgrade. Nor is zcash and other cryptos which are currently offered as an award. I'm not very good with coinpayments so I can't tell this for myself (I tried), but was just wondering which payment options are available as of 2017?

For context; I'm writing something on the Wiki about this and making sure what I'm saying is factual, as I know things have changed a lot around here in the last few months.

I just tried upgrading a normal member and it was allowing me to pay with one of the follow: BTC, LTC, DOGE, DASH, ETH

Just wondering; because I know it says those 5 on the upgrade page, is that actually right, or does coinpayments actually allow more than those 5 payment methods?

Only BTC, LTC, Ethereum, Doge and Dash on Coinpayments. I think it might change soon the ones with the awards soon though.

Coinpayments allows many more coin's but Omni's store (Witza) only allows those five methods.

Just added XMR. I may add ZEC once it's a more stable currency and in the top 10.
