(Mar 23, 2017 02:34 PM)Caractacus Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) What is "AGC Prime"? Just wondering as i have no clue.

It is amazon way of getting free shipping movies and stuff, but in this instance it is used as way to transfer balance from one account to another, it costs 33 and 99$ so if i send you 99 prime you can reedem it as 99$ amazon giftcard balance.

Hope i explained it:)

Thats weird i show you the conversations, with both of Amazon Support where they said its not my fault!

But you can read it again here:

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5587106>

<https://imgur.com/a/9yc1W>

People should really deal with caution here, my guess, he is trying to get as many AGC and Primes as he can, and then not paying!

Do not deal with him until the scam report is solved!

Please answer this and do not avoid: What happen if you cant get back your account? I lost my money? Because of your mistake or other peoples mistakes?

I told you we could go over amazon chat, share screens over skype or TV and ask them if the problem with your account its my fault!

People, BEAWARE with this guy!
i made myself perfectly clear, when i get a response i will pm you

Anyway, got friends account in function at the moment, buying .com/uk/.de policies will be bigger so dont come with me with carded agc:)

I Recommend not to deal with me until my problem is fixed, he is now making fun of my over skype, he just know its not my fault, just playing with my time and my money!

Thats not professional!

He just dont want to pay me, i offered him a solution, and he dont want!

He just wanna make excuses to steal my money, so becareful friends!

some people are just retarded open to buy more agc, would prefer .com at the moment (till evening)

jBoss - March 29, 2017, 7:54 am

Becareful Electrode, maybe you are his partner, we always see the case when someone turn out to be scam! Until he keeps ignoring me to try to keep my money hi is a scammer! if you dont believe me just check the scam report, he has been lying to me all day!

Scam Report: <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5587106>

He keeps making up excuses to avoid give me my money!

there is no need to spam really, account which was used in your and only your transaction is closed, when i resolve the issue i will contact you, there is nothing i can do till then and that is not ignoring, the fact that you are impatient is your personal flaw not mine.

Themis - March 29, 2017, 8:07 am

(Mar 29, 2017 08:03 AM)jBoss Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Here is another lie, first you use the account to recieve from me and another user, now is only from me <http://prntscr.com/epxvn5> what about to go to amazon support? You know if we go there your whole lie its going to fall! Thats why you ignore me!

Stop lying and try to steal my money, then i will stop warning everyone else about it!it was you and sad panda yes if u asked me that from start it would've been okay, the fact that i skipped school in order to call them and waste time on that and you not even acting like you care and starting to talk shit doesnt really make me sweettalk you, if you think im lying pm me and i will show you extra proof that account is on closed atm, but im not gonna act like i care about you because at this point you are getting on my nerves, customer support has been contacted and now im waiting for response for account specialist, when i receive it i will follow instructions and call again, even if you dont appreciate my effort in solving this soon (i dont really care) i will continue to do so.

I am not gonna answer on any of your provocative spammy comments anymore, you will receive a pm from me when i get a resolution from amazon, if you comment again it will just be ignored, thank you and have a nice day.

(Mar 29, 2017 08:20 AM)jBoss Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Dont change the subject, lets go over TeamViewer and ask Amazon support if the problem with the account its my fault?

If the answer yes i change my words i tell you sorry, but until now, its just make me think, that you only want to keep with my money... its not my fault if you bought carded AGC, My funds are clean...

I know i just lost my money with you... because when amazon reply to you, you are going to make another shitty excuse and not pay me! I just want to let the forum know that you are scamming people! And take off your mask!

Lets go over teamviewer i dare you!

You dont do it because you know im right!

If any one here with enough Rep and time in the forum wants to see that im telling the true im open for it...

You cannot say the same, because everytime you post, you only make a new excuse and a new lie!

I can confirm that Amazon are retards... so take a chill pill mate

<http://prntscr.com/epyd9>

This is the kind of people who claims deal more than 100k on the forum, but dont want to fix a $20 deal, i just want to get this over but it seems he does not care about it...

i know that amazon will be dicks so this can happen without warning, i have no cause to think that themis or his partners would scam you, so my personal advice would be to relax until it is resolved, it's not gonna help asking the same if the issue remains ?

Themis - March 29, 2017, 9:12 am talked with other side who sold me agc and i found the cahrgedbacked card, all you had to do is wait until i come with a conclusion, you might not have sold me a fucked card but you are an idiot just so you know, if i were a scammer i would enjoy scamming you for a dollar...

the retard was refunded!
