Make Money By List Building Using ClickBank

Content

- Where to get Bing Ads coupon Credits.
- Set up an Aweber auto responder account.
- Selecting a Profitable Offer From CLICKBANK
- How to set up Bing Ads Campaign.

FREE Traffic

If u can't get traffic you simply just don't make any money, its as simple as that no matter how much you research or the most demandable niche on the planet no traffic = no business.

Ok, let's start.

Let's keep it simple: FREE Traffic, then build you list from it and convert the list into Cash.

We know there is a lot of traffic from Bing Ads. Microsoft and Yahoo have teamed up to provide one place to purchase advertising on both Bing and Yahoo Search, which hold approximately 30% market share for searches combined. So here's the thing you can get Bing Ads coupon from places like: your webhosting accounts.

You can collect $75 to $120 free credit. The only catch is you have to open a hosting account and as well as your bing ads account which is all part of the process, you just simply open a bing ads account (<http://advertise.bingads.microsoft.com/>), check this little trick so no money comes out of your pocket, read very carefully.

Go to hostgator.com

Select Hatchling web hosting plan

Put "UNLIMITEDEMAILS" Coupon code

when you fill application select I have already have a domain

Then Put any your area website

Complete with 0.01$ per month for unlimited e-mails

So you got your coupon, lets go and set up your account but first we need a landing page, rather than drag this out I will keep it short, quick and simple. I use leadpages, you can't go wrong with them.

Here is the link - <https://www.bluehost.com/>

Now we have 2 ways we can go about this, we can sell a product through our ad campaigns or we purely just collect emails and give away free products until we start promoting payed products, after you have built a good relationship with your subscribers.

The money is in the list. So the very next step is to set yourself up with email auto responder account, aweber or get response, both have the good and the bad sides, I use aweber personally. Its really up to you who you want to use.

Go ahead and sign up for an account, you also have 30 days free trial then its $19.00 usd per month after that.

Let's set up AWeber.

Step 1 : Create Your List

Once filled in click Approve message & Create list

Step 2 : Create Your First Sign Up Forms

Step 3 : Design

Customize the look and style of your form. You will be redirected to this window.

Then just click one of the templates above, you can edit as you please. Have a play around, when you're done go to the next step.

Step 4 : Settings

Edit your form's properties and choose a thank you page.

Once you have got to this stage, save your form, click the green button on the left. Then the blue button once it is saved to the next step.

Step 6 : Publish To Your Website/Landing Page

As you can see it gives you three options and all three are very easy to do.

The first option is do it yourself, all you do is copy and paste the code into your website, if you can copy and paste you can do this.

If your not comfortable with doing that then Fivver is another place to have a look to outsource it.

The third option is to get Awebber to host it for you, the good thing about it is if you're a newbie it's a lot less work but on the other hand when you use a third party rules and regs change at any given time so keep updated with their changes/updates etc.

That's Awebber Auto responder set, the rest you have to do is create your message once you get subscribers as well as approve it, I will not cover that and the only reason is all dumb people reading this will just copy/paste my example and you'll fuck it all up. Jesus use some common sense for once.

Selecting an Offer from CLICKBANK

So many people seem to think Clickbank is just another affiliate network, that's not all it is. The platform is more of a marketplace for product affiliates and vendors to make money together minus all the forests of paperwork & agreements that you would normally expect. If you're newbie to affiliate marketing, the idea of earning commissions for promoting other people's products can be both exciting and confusing.

How do you know how much you'll earn? How is the sale and reported? When will you get paid for the sales?

The most popular affiliate program is run by Clickbank - the world's largest provider of digital products. Essentially eBooks & software. You can choose from over 30,000 PLUS Products in a wide range of categories and their affiliate program is very simple to join.

Here's a simple overview of how Clickbank commissions work:

You find a product to promote and create a customized HopLink.(Affiliate link)

You enter your account name then it generates the hoplink for you into another window shown above which you copy and paste it where its needed. Pretty straight forward ...

Price: $29.95

Subtract 7.5% + $1: -$3.25

Net Sale Amount: $26.70

55% of Remainder: $14.69

Therefore, as the referring affiliate for this sale, you would earn $14.69.

Commissions for recurring billing products are slightly different. See Promoting Recurring Billing Products for details.

The maximum commission you can earn on a single sale is $150.

Choose Your Niche

Here are some strategies and tips for choosing the right niche for your new affiliate business. Be sure to spend plenty of time on this step! Don't rush this step when getting started, this step will determine whether you'll be successful or not.

STICK TO A TARGETED AUDIENCE

Most people go to broad

Heres a simple mind map to give you an idea of narrowing it down using the Health Niche.

Set up Bing ads Campaign

Awesome tutorial . Thanks a lot for this sonex

2017 - March 26, 2017, 4:19 am

Hey there Sonex, I would first like to say thanks for the tutorial, however I had a few questions, hope you don't mind.

Context)

- 1) My plan was to pick a product/service to promote from Clickbank
- 2) Buy a domain related to whatever I picked get hosting and install WordPress.
- 3) Create an LP with Instapage, on the LP have an email opt-in to receive whatever I am promoting
- 4) Link MailChimp with instapage so all the submits get stored and set up autoresponse
- 5) Upload the LP to my website
- 6) Promote bing ads + youtube or whatever

Question: On your "step one" it says a confirmation message will be sent to your subscribers etc they have to click the link blah blah, can't you just put on the LP underneath the submit button "We will be mailing you, don't worry we dont spam etc" or do you use the verification so you have a good list and not any emails what people don't have access to or is it for another reason like, law etc.

Question: I plan on promoting via your method, however I also want to try this but want to see what you think.

- 1) Get an animated video made from Fivver about the product/service
- 2) Get a testiomneal video from Fivver made about the product/service
- 3) Try and rank the video, fake likes, comments, views all drip fed comments wont be to bait that there fake

Question: Rather than the above method ^

- 1) Look for a channel with a decent subscription what is in the Niche or my product/service, pay them to put the link of my LP in there description on an old video what is related and still getting traffic, or a new one.

Thanks :)

Hey so if I find a product on CB or another network, (Safe settings are taken into consideration) for e.g a lose weight product/service, create a youtube video about the topic(*Animated video from fivver or something)

Rank the video, view likes, social signals, dripped etc etc

In the video give some unique good tips, aka value, then put a twist in the video like, " To receive more tips visit (LP), LP asks for a name + email to send the tips to after they enter their name and email send them an email addressing them by their name and giving them the tips.

Then with a follow-up email x amount of days later, send them more informational tips or just talk about the product and service your promoting, and say " I hope you like the tips, however, there is more when that came from blah blah, CB link boom

What do you think?

Or is it better to just find a YouTuber in that niche and pay them to put the link to my LP in the description of one of their existing videos on the topic " Lose Weight " or to make one for me ?

Have you ever done Aff Maketing + YT
Since YT is one of the biggest SE I'm sure it is good?

Opinions thoughts and advice is much appreciated

You're correct but do you have any idea how much it costs to advertise through FB? Let alone the fact you or someone else is a newb, you're gonna spend thousands before you learn anything.

Sonex I got to admit your tutorial is awesome. I would like to ask you some things about getting the emails. Where I get them at first and why you have to send them the free product rather than send them an email to convince them buy the product through direct linking? I read you said about building trust with your subscribers but what if you got nothing to send..? Sorry if sth was easy to understand and I didn't..

Just find something to send? Like Google has it all, as long as they get anything for free they'll be satisfied.

Since when are you investing in Clickbank? CB never "scammed" anyone unless they did fraudulent activities, and those they did ban, they had absolute right to do so. What you're saying here is bullshit and you know it.

Dr.Hurlu - November 25, 2017, 2:50 am

Why not use mailchimp which is free up too 2 k subscribers instead of aweber?

But yeah the biggest trick is to gain trust before you recommend. Simply sending people to an affiliate offer doesn't work, it's like yelling in a mall that people should go and buy product "x" because it's amazing. They'll be like who the fook is dat guy? They'll move on, forget about you and you won't make any comissions.

Instead if you recommend product "x" to your best friend they might just buy it because they KNOW you and they TRUST you.

That's what you need to become, your customers friend. You need to send them value every other day ... free information .. help and support. Stories about how amazing you are in that niche, prove to them how much you know ... and only after that hit them with the affiliate link hammer and you'll have a much higher chance of converting them. Higher than the 0.01% you had before you gained their trust anyway.

It's a skill, you need to know how to talk to them ... and btw people aren't as stupid as you all think they'll figure out if you don't actually have a clue about the niche you're trying to bank from.

Btw, sonex... does that bing coupon thing work if you're from a God forsaken country that people only know about from old movies and legends?

But yeah the biggest trick is to gain trust before you recommend. Simply sending people to an affiliate offer doesn't work, it's like yelling in a mall that people should go and buy product "x" because it's amazing. They'll be like who the fook is dat guy? They'll move on, forget about you and you won't make any comissions.

Instead if you recommend product "x" to your best friend they might just buy it because they KNOW you and they TRUST you.

That's what you need to become, your customers friend. You need to send them value every other day ... free information .. help and support. Stories about how amazing you are in that niche, prove to them how much you know ... and only after that hit them with the affiliate link hammer and you'll have a much higher chance of converting them. Higher than the 0.01% you had before you gained their trust anyway.

It's a skill, you need to know how to talk to them ... and btw people aren't as stupid as you all think they'll figure out if you don't actually have a clue about the niche you're trying to bank from.

Btw, sonex... does that bing coupon thing work if you're from a God forsaken country that people only know about from old movies and legends?

Just sign up as US account regardless of IP.

Once again, thank you so much for this thread!! You're a monster!

I've few questions though..

- Does it require to have a VCC to start using the coupon to verify the bing ads account ? Or a verified Paypal ?

If so, which method do you use ?

- May you confirm me that the coupon is 100% 100$ off and it doesn't require small money to activate it ? (like spend 25$ get 100$)

- May you confirm me that your method can simply generate a potential unlimited amount of ads ?

Thank you so much!! :)

Have a nice day! :)

Hi Sonex,

Once again, thank you so much for sharing us your method.
I would like to set up a stealth bing ads account, have you any advice on how to verify it ?
It seems that the good odd days of bing's VCC are gone.

Have a nice day!

Ahah thank you for the answer!

I'm stuck at an issue actually, I got the message from paypal "sorry, we weren't able to set up preapproved payments at this time" when trying to link it to verify my Bing account.

Do you know how to deal with ?

Thank you and have a nice day!
