I came here for the marketplace. I know its mostly filled with eBook spam and whatnot, but a tiny part of it still resembles half a brain cell and that's the part I came for.

Well, I won't get into too much detail because this isn't the place, but I will say that I came here to sell you people stuff at cheap prices. Obviously, there's people like ShadyLTD who sell actual stuff once in a blue moon, but apart from that there's no one really who you can be based on to supply you. That's where I come in! I don't want to get in too much detail, as I stated above, but DO expect me to contribute to the marketplace of this forum soon.

I should, but I have no money to do so. Literally none. Why do you think I'm selling?

SocialAgency - March 26, 2017, 1:13 pm

You have to invest to become a successful salesman. Get yourself upgraded, and start selling.

The marketplace requires positive reputation to post in.

I know. I also know it is against the rules to ask for rep and I'm trying to think how to contribute so I can actually access the marketplace.

Watch it. Someone coming to the forums giving big expectations. How many users have I seen talk like that?

Nope, still can't post. Some guy got angry when he bumped a free GFX post and I told him it's against the rules no matter how ub3r you are. That might fall into rep-fucking, not sure, but anyways theres my chance ruined to get into the marketplace anytime soon.
