SRPP/DEBATE SECTOR

Do you like to debate, discuss a wide arrange of topics, and learn a little in the process? Well, if so, this is the sector for you. The Brotherhood now has an SRPP/debate sector that's open to one and all, provided you meet a few basic requirements, fill out the application, and maintain a level head.

Requirements

- Applicants with open or unresolved scam reports will be automatically denied.
- Must be able to follow The Brotherhood Handbook.
- Must be member of Hack Forums for at least a month.
- Must have a warning level below 35%.
- Must not have a bad reputation within the Hack Forums community.
- Must be able to meet our daily/weekly/monthly requires in the Sub-Forum.
- Must contribute at least one discussion thread a week.
- Must remain respectful while taking part in a discussion or a debate.
- Must have a basic understanding of logic/logical fallacies.
- Must actively post/partake in discussions (10 posts a week minimum).

If You're Not Sure What Proper Debate Etiquette Is:

CLICK HERE

Warning System:

If you break any of the following rules, in succession or not, three times, you will be removed from the group.

Rules:

- Maintain at least a moderate amount of respect for all your peers.
- Don't personally attack anyone you're talking to.
- Don't make one sentences posts just to meet the discussion requirement.
- Don't post just to tell someone they're wrong without an explanation.
- Don't thwart discussions with no explanation.

This is gonna be really fun and entertaining for those that like to have hardcore, intelligent debates.

We ran a pilot of this sector years ago and it was great.

Then Hexi made a group just for SRPP stuff so we shut it down.

What can you bring to The Brotherhood?: Healthy and logical debates, internal-wise.

Previous SRPP Contributions (list a few): -

Why should we accept you?: I am here to learn and view the opinions and understanding of different topics from several users, if anything else. I show respect to my fellow debaters, regardless of their standing on certain topics.

Why do you want to join The Brotherhood SRPP/Debate Sector?: I am more keen in joining a moderated and controlled SRPP sector.

I quite enjoyed talking to and working with Hex. Hopefully this sector brings about the same friendly environment.

Topics you find interesting:
SRPP: Religion, aliens, creatures, old legends, debating, effects (placebo, mandela and such).
General: Technology, security, encryption, programming, AI, machine learning and similar things.

Topics you have knowledge in:
SRPP: Aliens, mythology, science, religion, politics, ancient legends, ancient tribes and such.
General: Programming, technology, security, encryption, AI, machine learning and other programming related stuff.

Are you active in the SRPP:
Well, it's my 3rd most posted section so yeah I'd say I'm pretty active. ?

What can you bring to The Brotherhood?:
Great discussions, a great attitude, a respectful manner and way of debating as well as a love for debates and discussions.

Previous SRPP Contributions (list a few):

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5365315>
<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5337067>

I have more older posts as well.

Why should we accept you?:
I am very fond of discussions and specifically, ARGUMENTS/DEBATES. Always loved debating on whatever. Heck, I even took the MB test and got "The Debater" as my personality type - which is true. I'll attempt to debate in a civil and respectful manner (and yes I have read the "how to debate" thread in it's fullest) and bring some facts to the table, as well as personal opinions.

Why do you want to join The Brotherhood SRPP/Debate Sector?:
Well, seeing who's the "leader" makes me believe this has potential. From what I saw in the Occult sector (Illuminati) SRPP groups seem like the place for me. I would just love to be a part of one and bring some great debates and discussions. Really all the same from the previous question.

Are you active in the SRPP: I started posting there recently. I find the environment a little hostile and feel like my alt right opinions would be shut down by some feminist. I think a smaller group would be much less daunting.

What can you bring to The Brotherhood?: Alternate right views. I dislike lefties, feminists and people who study genders.

Previous SRPP Contributions (list a few): Idk, I post a lot about Trump. I like Trump!

Why should we accept you?: Was in Brotherhood before and didn't post much because it was all about runescape. If this was around back then I'd have been much more active. I love debates!!! :D

Why do you want to join The Brotherhood SRPP/Debate Sector?: For fun, sort of interested in just arguing my opinion with some different people.

Are you active in the SRPP:

Not really, but I am going to try to start posting there more. I remember one thread I was in that section for, which was talking about situations, like "What would you do in this situation?" I really like those types of things.

What can you bring to The Brotherhood?:

I can hopefully bring some new opinions within the discussions and also start some new interesting discussions. I am also respectful to everyone and always stay calm. Love debates and discussions.

Previous SRPP Contributions (list a few):

None yet, I hope to contribute more in the future and get more involved in the discussions there. I haven't been L33T for too long, I generally try to focus on the PI section a lot.

Why should we accept you?:

I love to debate things, I had a friend I used to debate with, the conversations were very long, but I really liked it. I also really want to and am willing to learn about different topics. I can hopefully bring in different opinions to the discussions and it will be a good experience as my first group.

Why do you want to join The Brotherhood SRPP/Debate Sector?:

Well, as said in the but above, I want to learn more about topics and would love to meet new people who are also into discussions and the topics I like. It will also be a cool experience as it will be the first group I have been in.

=====

As I haven't really posted much in the SRPP section, I would understand if I don't get in here, I will try get more active in that section.

Topics you find interesting: Although cliché, I have a genuine interest in most topics that I come across with the exception of entertaining far-fetched conspiracy theories such as the Reptilians, Flat Earth etc. A few topics that I'm especially interested in are economic theory, political theory, nihilism, morality and ethics, as well as religion.

Topics you have knowledge in: See above

Are you active in the SRPP: Not at this moment, but I plan to become more active.

What can you bring to The Brotherhood?: Respectable debates that aim to expose others to an opposing, and many times unpopular points of view.

Previous SRPP Contributions (list a few): My list is very short as I'm not too active in the section, or on HF for that matter, but like I said, I am going to be very shortly.

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5444819&pid=52928985#pid52928985>

Why should we accept you?: Although new and unproven to both the section and the website, debating politics, philosophy, science, economics and religion has been an integral part of my life. In my opinion, what makes me unique is the diversity of the topics and viewpoints that I'm willing to debate. It may sound kind of corny, and may even be frowned upon in this section, but I'll argue just about any point of view, even if I adamantly oppose it, and I can make the logic seem convincing enough to have others second guessing their own opinions on the subject, which in my opinion, is what debating is all about.

Why do you want to join The Brotherhood SRPP/Debate Sector?: My high school didn't have a debate team.

Are you active in the SRPP:
I'm some-what active, I wouldn't say that I'm really active, however, I plan to start posting there more often.

What can you bring to The Brotherhood?:
By joining this Group, I plan on bringing my debating skills, I have debated with other people before in the past relating to a couple of religious topics, extraterrestrial life forms, etc. I know how to properly debate with someone without flaming them in the debate, in any way.

Previous SRPP Contributions (list a few):
Like I said, I am in love with Astronomy, whenever I find an interesting topic about Astronomy, I try to see what other members think about it. - <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5513880>

There's not much activity, yes, I know, but as time goes on I plan on posting more in SRPP.

Why should we accept you?:
I think that you should accept me for the sole purpose of being a 15 year old trying to join the group. Many people have their doubts that I can come up with arguments/debates in a mature way, but I want to prove most wrong, that I'm a smart individual by creating debates that no other 15 year old would create, I'm obviously able to research the topic if I don't know about the Topic, but when I find enough information on the topic, I will create a debate like no other 15 year old would ever.

Why do you want to join The Brotherhood SRPP/Debate Sector?:
I think by joining the SRPP sector I can expand my knowledge on most topics when browsing and posting on threads in the SRPP sub-forum. Not only by joining this group will I gain knowledge, I will show debates that no other 15 year old would ever create, maturity is not an issue from me.

Topics you have knowledge in: I have a little bit of knowledge in just about anything. I'm the kind of guy to find information for things just because I'm bored.

Are you active in the SRPP: Only when I see quality topics. To be honest with you it gets fairly awful, would love a nice place to debate things without trolls.

What can you bring to The Brotherhood?: Well I used to be on debate teams, have started a club and such for it high school but aside from that I debate often. Would enjoy debating without (like I put in the last question) LQ trolls.

Previous SRPP Contributions (list a few): I typically comment more than I start topics, admittedly.

Why should we accept you?: Active and someone who enjoys debates. I have a vast array of knowledge in nearly every subject and I always try to bring something to an argument.

Why do you want to join The Brotherhood SRPP/Debate Sector?: For all the reasons listed above. It's a sector I meet all the basic requirements for. I have participated in large scale debates, I debate often, it's something I want to do more on HF but in a quality environment which SRPP often fails to provide.

Previous / Current groups: None.

Topics you find interesting: Politics. Poverty. Crime & Punishment. Capital Punishment. Drugs abuse. Religion. Abortion.

Topics you have knowledge in: I have knowledge in all of the above topics. I am currently focusing on these topics in Uni and I am becoming really engaged with them.

Are you active in the SRPP: I am fairly active in the section, however, I've just been upgraded so that's the only reason I haven't been majorly involved. I will be extremely active if I was accepted into the group.

What can you bring to The Brotherhood?: I can bring interesting topics to debate and discuss about. I can bring real facts and sources. I can teach people how to debate and how to make a strong argument and teach the basics.

Previous SRPP Contributions (list a few): <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5597494> - I just reply and argue my point on already existing threads.

Why should we accept you?: I am looking to meet new people and have some fun debating about what I believe is right. Refer to the above answers also.

Why do you want to join The Brotherhood SRPP/Debate Sector?: Again - to engage in discussion, help out where I can, just chill and meet new people. I like to debate with users and I generally bring a strong and valid argument to the table.

Topics you find interesting: Philosophy, politics, economics, debates; essentially all that classifies a human being.

Topics you have knowledge in: ^ minus the debates since you wouldn't really classify it a topic of truths or knowledge.

Are you active in the SRPP: Yeah, it is definitely the first and last thing I check each time I log into HF.

What can you bring to The Brotherhood?: A new face, and ultimately new perspectives. After all thats what we are there for. We feed off differing perspectives in which you can rebuttal with your own observations of the world.

Why should we accept you?: Why not?

Why do you want to join The Brotherhood SRPP/Debate Sector?: Hello comrades. As are all opinions, I feel as if mine could have some benefit into the community. I am eager to utilise my thoughts and project it into forum that could actually shape something in my life, be that my friend who needs some guidance or a community I can bounce contrasting thoughts against - which will in turn help myself grow. Thats what I love about good debates because it has you questioning literally what you just argued for, and you think 'wow, do i even believe that anymore' and casts you to find the answers. Situations like these is what ignites my highest joy, and who knows this could very well be the prologue something greater. I am full of ideas and would love you share them with like minded individuals.

In solidarity,
- Schi.

Topics you find interesting:

Computers (specifically security), Technology, Religion, Science, LGBT rights, Politics, Military, Warfare, History, Sci-fi, and Daily activities

Topics you have knowledge in:

Computers, Technology, Religion, Some Science, LGBT (Live in a very pro-gay state so I get lots of interactions), Politics, Military, Warfare, History, Sci-fi, Travel, and a some Psychology and Sociology

Are you active in the SRPP:

Just recently got L33t and the privileges to post but I do think and interact on some random topics when I can

What can you bring to The Brotherhood?:

I can view things from a variety of views. Traveling for a few years around the country and interacting with a variety of cultures and subcultures has opened my mind to different views. It has allowed me to realize that not everything is all black and white or all right or wrong but rather by the fact that many things are relative and subjected. I would like to believe what I can bring is another intellect who has a different mindset from others with the ability to learn while at the same time teach.

Previous SRPP Contributions (list a few):

As I've stated, I might be a bit new to the SRPP section sadly.

Why should we accept you?:

I believe that by accepting me, I could contribute to this section with the views and experiences that I've had over the years. I believe that I could contribute to discussion with like minded and different people at the same time on topics that can result in all of us learning and growing in our knowledge of this world.

Why do you want to join The Brotherhood SRPP/Debate Sector?:

Much of what I said contributes to this reason but to iterate a bit more, I would love to interact and discuss/debate with a variety of people from a variety of backgrounds. It would also help myself in learning about new things. I've learned that you learn more from other people than you learn from oneself due to the fact that you are having to learn under their mindset rather than yours and being in this group would definitely help in me learning more about this complex world we live in.

What can you bring to The Brotherhood?: I'm an actual Fascist and having different opinions from many sides of the political spectrum would be nice.

Previous SRPP Contributions (list a few): Just joined and recently noticed this section.

Why should we accept you?: The answer is pretty straight-forward. I have knowledge in Racial Science and politics. My opinions are always Far-Right and it would be unique in your group to have someone represent that side of the spectrum without Shit-Posting or Trolling.

Why do you want to join The Brotherhood SRPP/Debate Sector?: I'd like to give my opinions and arguments to future debates that will be in this sector. I do not do personal attacks and I represent my opinions professionally. I also feel that certain Political Ideologies are absent and it would be nice to see opinions from people who greatly differ from each other in that aspect.

Members aren't accepted based on their political views. They're accepted based on how they carry themselves and whether I see them capable of remaining respectful in such a sector.

Being active in the SRPP isn't a requirement. Anyone can have a discussion and, hence, why it's called the SRPP/Debate Sector. Also, I don't tally political views or what you do and don't believe in when you're invited. Also, there hasn't been a single political thread in the sector besides a "Where do You Align" thread that I made. Other than, we've talked about virtually everything other than politics.

Not that I need to explain myself to you.

You're welcome, and I do understand post count is not everything but it shows some sort of activity - but what counts most must be the quality of each post/thread.

However I know you have quality and you're intelligent so maybe they're focusing on other things.. Perhaps highest level in Runescape? ?
