Uhhhh this is allowed to sell?

isn't this like selling marijuana, allowed in some countrys while forbidden in others?

Impaired_ - March 28, 2017, 1:11 pm

Its not federally regulated like cannabis so yes its legal to sell.

Some countries have laws, like Australia for instance, im speaking about the United States in particular.

Some states within the United States have laws prohiting salvia to different degrees, depending on the laws we can or cannot sell to you legally.

Netherlands Legal Legal Legal Legal

Fuck yeah awesome! Everything is legal over here xD when i purchase for 35$ i get Plants? What do you mean with that? like 2 meter plants or just big portions not exactly weighted?

would it be enough to try it out multiple times with 3-5 friends?

We'd be happy to help you if you consider purchasing.

Be weary of buying old product, degradation from poor storage will result in you getting a poor product.

All of our products are very fresh and viable.

I'm interested in purchasing, although I have my worries after watching some people smoke it on YouTube haha. I really enjoy a good high from weed but this looks way different.

In my opinion most of those videos give it a bad reputation because people often don't know that they're ingesting an intense psychedelic drug. The experience is nothing in comparison to cannabis, and our 5x is quite potent but it will be a mild version of what salvia has to offer. Its perfect for those who are trying it for their first time.

-DMS- - March 29, 2017, 2:23 pm

so no hallucinations or horror trips?

(Mar 29, 2017 02:23 PM)-DMS- Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) so no hallucinations or horror trips?

The experience is entirely dependent on the user, set/setting. In higher doses it is sometimes compared to DMT in terms of intensity but the experience is much different. Its a unique and strong compound, and its not for everybody but if you want to get an idea of what its like 5x is the best place to start.

There is no good without bad after all, don't go your entire life expecting not to experience a 'bad trip'.

Allow me to shed some light on the youtube horror videos.

Salvia is active in the MICROGRAM range, around 650mcg-1mg is a active dose of salvinorin, this is extremely small amounts.

Now the people who smoke salvia on youtube are smoking intensely strong extracts, sometimes over 80x!

This is what they call in the medical community as an overdose. These people are overdosing on powerful a typical dissociative psychedelics without even knowing its a psychedelic. That would freak anyone out.

When a drug is active at 1mg theres no need to smoke an extract with over a 100mg of in a single inhalation.

The same exact things happen when people overdose on other psychedelics like lsd.

G*59 - March 31, 2017, 12:52 pm

Only a few grams left, order now to get it shipped out first thing tomorrow. We also can offer half gram samples for $9 including shipping upon special request.

Rezpy - March 31, 2017, 3:05 pm

Do you eat it or smoke it?

G*59 - March 31, 2017, 3:15 pm

(Mar 31, 2017 03:05 PM)Rezpy Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Do you eat it or smoke it?

Salvia can be eaten or smoked, although extracts are generally smoked. If you wanted to eat it purchasing a plant would be ideal. I won't get into the methods on that but its not too difficult. When you buy it its none of our business what you do with it ?

NSA - March 31, 2017, 4:02 pm

This is illegal where I live, if i buy this online and get it through mail will i be arrested on sight?

Is that a serious question?

I assume if you found a vendor that is ok with breaking the law it wouldnt be much of a problem.

Illegal Drugs are shipped in the mail hourly and not many people are being caught compared to how many do it.

Anything can be addictive, but no you will not become a salvia fiend. Infact salvia can become more intense the more you use it (reverse tolerance)

Coco_Cubana - April 1, 2017, 2:29 pm

vouch i bought a gram of 5X and got it today, tried a small sample and tastes great going to try some more tomorrow.

Manks - April 3, 2017, 12:45 pm

Got the product fairly fast (3-4 days)

Tried it by itself; was good, gave friends and I a really good body high
Highly recommend if you aren't in other drug substances, but still wanna try physio-altering herbs.
(Even got my 'no weed' friend to try it.)

that's actually a pretty cool fact I never knew that.

Good luck with your shop! I might buy some in the future, haven't seen anything like this in places other than deep web vendors
