See the communication, after confirmation, can't get a word out of seller. I check his status, he is online but don't want to reply to my multiply request for the product

Pretty sad to see this , this guy contacted me for Prime deal today . Although i never go first with anyone , but sad to see he took advantage on you ..

Yea sad day here. Also got exited scammed by another user, will post that alert as well. I will stop going first for sure.

Guys, be very careful with this guy. He is still active on forum and not reply to me with the prime gift. Anyway we can escalate this and make sure he can't trade until this is resolved.

I bought 2 x $33 from SoLiS. and everything went well.

He sent it first though, guess you have to look for trusted members.

johnchung - March 30, 2017, 2:09 pm

I see, watch out for exit scam. He might build up trust than try to scam you.

This is kinda strange, I click on the users profile and it takes me to the main page?

Thanks, i have updated the link, should work now.

SoLiS. didn't like it when i go around to warn other users in threads he posted in. i added reps to his rating so other users will see it. Sad that he had to scam for such a small amount.

Good luck with this OP!

SoLiS. = Multi-accounter... (I assume)

SoLiS. added me to Ignore List instantly after signing up (possible a multi-accounter, since I never spoke to him/her).

I neg rep'd him/her (I think it's a "she") because of this sketchy attitude and she/he got +rep short after.

No proof, but most likely to be a multi-accounter who is in the same Discord group as all the other "anti-vb" reputators.

Yes, they discuss things like "just neg rep'd that VB cunt", so be careful OP! Good luck with this further. ?

Thanks, i did see your negative rep on SoLiS. and was wondering the same thing. They made it seem like you were the one who were in the wrong. My post will proof otherwise and I think you should contact mod to get it corrected. I'm sure there is a group of them or maybe a few of them running multiply accounts, we need to root them out as many as possible.

Anyone know where I can find good MM on the forum that are trustworthy?
