Thread: User: Wizard. - UID : 3437953 - Awaiting Payment

Total deal price = 120$

Awaiting 60$.

User asked for somebody to a website for him. Thread here

Not going to post the idea of site and what needed to be done (not going to be an asshole).
But what he requested was fairly simple with only one more complex part.

I've sent him a PM

Discord conversation "highlights"

First messages (it was him)

Spoiler \(Click to View\)

Spoiler \(Click to View\)

He wanted a payment gateway with PayPal so I got one of the guys I'm working with in on the project and we agreed on a price of 120$.

Spoiler \(Click to View\)

Then we agreed that he'll pay 50% when he sees some progress and the rest after I finish.

Fast forward:

Spoiler \(Click to View\)

So basically he stopped replying. I gave him a 2 days heads up before I open this thread.

Please note that the website he requested isn't finished. We, me and my dev, stopped working on this when he stopped replying. We agreed that we will continue working on it when he sends some payment upfront.

Another interesting thing is that all the other people I've worked for (from this forum and outside the forum) were asking for updates on their projects while we were working on them, which is normal.

Not sure what happened here but this is just unprofessional behavior.

Quick Edit (Forgot to add this):
I'm waiting for that 50% upfront.

Bro, chill, I didn't check my discord, I apologize, I rarely use it.

You should of PM'd me.

The latest PM I got from you was one saying you opened a DD on me.

If you were that worried about this then surely you would try various contact methods,

Jump on discord, I'll give you my skype where you can catch me every day, show me some progress on the site and you'll be paid. Simple.

I gave you a PM heads up to be fair.

Also, I told you when I took your project that I can make a skype if you'd prefer using skype. You said that discord is fine. So I went with discord as a method of communication.

I wasn't worried.

Usually when you pay (or are about to pay) somebody, I'd expect that person to contact the person they hired to do a job to get various updates on how the job is going.

PS: Talking to the user on Discord now.

I'll send him the progress tomorrow since I'm on phone at the moment.

you have to wait 24 hours before opening a deal dispute, was this 24 hours ago?

I posted the discord conversation of the past days.

Asked him on the 24th if he can change his pp to btc and I didn't get any response from him till now.

You gave me a PM heads up an hour before you opened the DD.

I would think one would wanna give a little more of a heads up before opening a deal dispute on someone. Seems like there wasn't enough time given to resolve this.

He had a 2 days heads up on discord.
And 12 hours on HF.

I agree that this could have been taken care of in other ways. But I've had some people tell me to be careful when dealing with him (after I already taken this project).

lol

I've never scammed anyone.

Lol, sorry I have not been on HF for the past 12 hours, I have a life, and like to come online at night.

Not sure I like the way that your attitude and tone with me is, considering all I've done is apologize and tell you you'll be paid.

Slightly weird individual aren't you.

Update:

So I talked with Wizard. via PM and he told me that he would send the money on Monday.

It's already Wednesday for me.

Spoiler \(Click to View\)

I changed my username in the meantime so I thought I'd let him know:

Spoiler \(Click to View\)

So monday came and I sent him another PM:

Spoiler \(Click to View\)

No reply.

So yesterday, Tuesday, I sent him another PM in hopes he would reply at least. Spoiler alert: he didn't.

He read the message but he didn't take the time to write at least: "Sorry. The money didn't come in yet.."
