Thread: Minimalist - Thank you!

TheVBScripter_Temp - March 31, 2017, 8:51 am

Hello, TheVBScripter_Temp here with a short explain that WILL get me banned for life lol. I don't feel like waiting 21 days for my BAN to be DONE.. thanks to Reverse's provoking attitude with scam-related replies & screenshots @irrelevant threads from other users, just to provoke me.

@Minimalist, you told me to not reply with off-topic posts and "discussions" about me... but you do let Reverse post:

- screenshot of my scam report @off-topic threads
- "scammer" related posts @off-topic threads
- provoking messages while you tell me they aren't allowed?

Fuck off man... you are really pathetic for banning me after YOU told ME that I should report him, fucking snake.

Like you said in the PM to me (TheVBScripter):
"No it's not allowed" (according the issue we discussed)

Now.. you BAN ME for replying to Reverse's OFF-TOPIC, "not allowed", flaming and "harassing" posts?! ??????

You BANNED me... after I contacted you 5x for this provoking peace of shit???

Wtf is wrong with you man, seriously...

- EVERY POST of me = flamed by him
- EVERY THREAD where I post = flamed by him
- EVERY REPLY of me = flamed by him
- ALL HIS POSTS = "scammer" or scam-related or screenshots of the scam report.

Conclusion: @Minimalist

You tells member to Ignore the "harassing posts and report them", but he does NOT warn any member(s) who post irrelevant replies (scam-replies, scam-report screenshots & other harassing messages).

I accept the fact that I will be banned, I don't care about that anymore.

I notice know that my reputation wasn't "able to safe" anymore, due to Reverse & his Dutch friends who leaked personal data, who flamed me, who provoked me, who KEPT HARASSING ME AFTER YOU SAID THAT IT I SHOULD REPORT THOSE POSTS.... and you didn't do 1 fucking thing about it.

Congratulations @Reverse, you got me banned for a month with your provoking piece of CANCER attitude, while I was happy here for 7 years.

Anyway, now that I am not related to HF anymore, I will take next steps regarding the members of my list.

Members I HAVE TO thank:

- Omniscient (For having me 7 years around here, I might be back but who knows)

- King of Hearts & Orgy (For creating Rocketr.net)
- *The member who KEPT changing his name after I "scammed" him for the $125 (I was working on your refund, but you can imagine that this will never work out well for you anymore)
- Forsen (Just a cool member)
- TheChief (for being able to SCAM for THOUSAND of bucks and still get your own group from Omniscient LOL)
- Stephanie046 (Google: Stephanie046 You will see her PERSONAL life and her HACKFORUMS life.. a GAY girl who EWHORES for MONEY - UGLY BITCH and you call yourself a "thug" LOL. Let's see how cool you will be this summer.) Anyway thanks for the motivation to persue my plans with you, just be careful with going home or going to your new girlfriend. I'm not the only person in your neighbourhood who wants to see you very soon hahaha you should.

Special Thanks too:

- CheGuevara (I won't say why, but you know why brother! Take care my beloved brother and all the happiness for you and your family, we will speak soon again and thank you for understanding me in ways that nobody else could)
- ALL the other members who helped me with information, knowledge, money making, legal issues, designs, sites, discounts and plenty of great things more!)

Final words:

Minimalist, I really think you are a fucking bitch for banning me after Reverse provoked the shitout of me & enjoyed it lol.

You replied to my Scam Report, you banned me for "off-topic" replies, while you told me by PM that it was Reverse who I should report over and over again for his attitude in his posts.

I believe for a full 100% that you banned me for "scamming" that kid, although you don't even know the truth. Either way, you're just a bitchy boy of 16 years old (or 17 whatever) who needs this e-dick to be popular at school. Man up bro, you shouldn't punish 1 member while Reverse is the fucker who provoked me over and over again today.) He claimed to be "very petty" and "triggered him so much", yet you let him get away with this? Okay. I will be back soon with a new account (without matching IP, since I live on my own know!)

It's hard to control a guy who you can't follow anymore. ?

Cheese Doober - March 31, 2017, 8:52 am

Everywhere that I seemed to lurk I always saw an off-topic reply to the topic coming from you. And every time that someone replied back to you, addressing e.g. the fact that you posted an off-topic reply, you always had to reply back to them. Ever heard of turning the other cheek?

Also I highly doubt that anyone cares about a whole topic dedicated to straight-up sh*t-talk. If I were one of the people that you (didn't sarcastically) thank then I would be ashamed.

Well, there is a confusion, apparently Eagle did, so from this way of looking. Minimalist is not to blame, (ew, you should excuse yourself for that). But on the other hand, we could say it's pretty contradictory that a staff member says so, and another one does otherwise! I think something should be done for that.

I know you feel angered by that ban, I understand your way of reacting to this kind of ban, powerless and thinking you just got abused, since we told you it was not allowed, you reporting it as harassment was understandable. I think what really needs to be done is to clear out the confusion, Minimalist says it's not allowed/ Eagle ban him for reporting something not allowed? What's up?

No.

Some characteristics won't change.

He shares content with members who rep him after they receive it but overall he's just a shitty guy with no morals.

IMO he doesn't even deserve a second chance since I know these types of people well. You don't brag about having it good and being treated well in real if your life is fucked up.

He is just another waste of space, literally, nothing good other than him trying to feel good by giving out free guides comes out of this guy.

so from this way of looking. Minimalist is not to blame, (ew, you should excuse yourself for that). But on the other hand, we could say it's pretty contradictory that a staff member says so, and another one does otherwise! I think something should be done for that.

I know you feel angered by that ban, I understand your way of reacting to this kind of ban, powerless and thinking you just got abused, since we told you it was not allowed, you reporting it as harassment was understandable. I think what really needs to be done is to clear out the confusion, Minimalist says it's not allowed/ Eagle ban him for reporting something not allowed? What's up?

A great post indeed.

You're actually very lucky! ??
I loved playing around with VB but you're really the master at it.

The reason you're lucky is that I was warned by staff through PM twice about it before and you had the case where he got almost 400 replies on his scam report, which adds a lot to the stress and so on.

You deserve all credits for this. 21 days without LQ posts now!

You flat out admitted to me DIRECTLY, you were working with Krebs.

I want a fucking explanation.
Call it BS all you want, the story you told me was Sooo damn believable I actually bought it.

So ELABORATE your involvement with Krebs, and Why in the fuck you would say something like that to ME of all people.

A "Test of trust" is BS.... I got a better conclusion that makes more logical sense, but I am STILL waiting on your end of the story, you had over a fucking MONTH to come up with a good BS story, so lets fucking hear it.

You can ignore me on the site all you want I know this, but I also know your going to also read what I am saying as well. So remove the fucking ignore and like you said "Be mature" about all of this.

I see no reason to bring this in public when it can be dealt with in private, but this is your choice.

The past 4 days I was warned twice for Flaming/harassing him...

But those two post were really just Completely off topic post...

All of my other post were subtly directed at VB but I managed to tie in my comment to him and respond to the OP at the same time knowing he'd just reply off topic with no regards to the OP.

I also put him on my ignore list because I know he would try to PM me and if he couldn't PM me he wouldn't be able to resist replying in the thread lol

How does that benefit you at all?

It was all worth the warnings, haha.

That's a smart tactic right there which I used to do as well but I thought staff just saw right through it and still removed my posts so I quit doing it.

Honestly,

I think Eagle got tired of all the "False reporting" and off topic posting by him, and constant PMs about members calling him out for scamming.

Arguably, I have used that same form numerous times.

Usually for Pedophilia reports however.

Carders get caught on their own, they get sloppy, Robots involvement is unnecessary, and among anything counter productive. He ADMITS to reporting carders, okay cool, even I back that ..
Carding is not cool.

But what else is being reported he is NOT admitting to?

Who ELSE is he reporting to, I already know he reports to Krebs... so who else as well?

How many people is this person informant to towards how we as a community operate to bastardize and make us out to be the criminal majority are not?

100%

Since that scam report I did some ugly stuff on the forums where I flamed him but staff didn't seem to care.

I mean like, he's adding a lot of work on the table which is not required if they'd just ban him, which they did.

Just to be clear, he didn't get banned for reporting something. He got banned for the reason I wrote on the bans.php. All that were involved in provoking him got action taken on them, too.
