Every game you play in Norms, it will say the opponents are all bots.

RIP my team assuming they are bots.

Grievous????? - April 1, 2017, 7:29 am

I just played a game and my team got absolutely stomped.

And they were crying saying "how the fuck are these bots so good" lmao it was funny as hell. ?

Cylow - April 1, 2017, 7:31 am

Lmao nice one.

I think it's time for me to get back to LoL

GameOfScripts - April 1, 2017, 2:05 pm

Wait wtf? they weren't bots? i was genuienly thought that they were bots becuae on the homepage of the client it said that they were testing the new AI! ffs i hate april fools. such a confusing day :((xd

Skidy - April 2, 2017, 3:15 pm

How often do you play League? We should play sometime, have not played in ages! Love the game though.

Kyrus - April 2, 2017, 3:26 pm

This is a really good idea.

Someone could make an add-on for league where it mutes all enemy's and put their name as bots.

It'll be a pretty good way to play ranked with a positive attitude.

hahah this is actually quite a nice and smart idea for april fools :D

+1 to Riot for this one..

Saw the improces Yasuo version video aswell on Facebook, made me laugh a great bit haha

A silver player would been able to 1v9 with Yasuo if they did that.

Quite funny thinking you are in the wrong game mode.
Haven't played League in the last few days, was this also in ranked?

I didn't test ranked but I assume not.

FNf3TD - April 4, 2017, 12:58 am

I genuinely thought they were bots, but you can see their names just after the games. We got stomped nonetheless.

test - April 4, 2017, 1:00 am

Eh, kind of disappointing to be honest. I expected something a bit more creative and fun from Riot.

DarkWind - April 4, 2017, 2:26 am
