I received a vouch copy for this service. I messaged him on Friday and told him I needed the essay done by Monday. I received the essay before the deadline I gave him. I am amazed at the quality of the work. I have seen many Homework/Writing Services on HF and I must say--this is one of my favorites. I had to message him multiply times because I forgot to include some details, suprisingly he did not seem to be ticked off about this. I would recommend this service to anyone who needs to have an essay done!

My trust has been blown twice with Jonathan. After confronting him the second time I believe he blocked me. The first essay was blatant plagiarism, the second incident was less blatant but still, 700 of the 2500 words were copied word for word. I let the first incident slide, but after a second time, I don't know if I can. I spent probably close to $500 on his services.

Epikfeg - May 14, 2017, 3:19 pm

I ordered a paper from Johnathan and got my results back a few days ago. Scored 97% out of 100.
I'm satisfied.

An update on this,

Jonathan helped me out. We were able to resolve this, and provided sources. My teacher has misread the citation.

Speed was insane, I ordered it an hour ago and was hoping to get it tomorrow morning but I received it just a while ago. Service was professional and OP was very open to negotiations and dealt my lowballing offers in a very professional matter.

Definitely recommend this service to anyone who needs to get their work done, will definitely purchase from OP in the future for any work I need to get done. ?

Heres a screenshot of my grade for my last paper I purchased. Great service, received my paper shortly after I placed my order with great customer service. The free revisions are also great as I wanted a small addition to my paper and it was happily added. I wouldn't hesitate to work with John, I've been using this service since early April.

Even on christmas, where I told him to take a break , he did not hesitate to try and provide my the service I required. I highly suggest this service to anyone solely based on how flexible he is. Literally if you are unsatisfied with a paper , he will rewrite the entire thing for you untill you are satisfied with what you recieve. He is very polite, and treats each paper as it was his own. I will update with my marks on the paper but I expect good results :)

I got my essay edited by OmniPapers and they did an astounding jobs! They truly fixed all the grammar errors, and fixed my structuring mistakes to make it all flow. I even edited my essay after he sent me an edited version, and he was willing to look over it one more time

Thank you all for the extremely kind comments about my service. I really do appreciate your business and hope to see you in the future soon!
