Either, botting is cheaper rates tho, and if you buy botted and it's banned I'm not responsible

Prophett - April 7, 2017, 12:28 pm

Can you not simply recover though?

How? Accounts are made with no email set. If you pay upfront I will use an account you've made as well

Major League - April 7, 2017, 12:41 pm

If you'd be willing to do a vouch account I'd be interested.

Create the account on your ISP then give it to him. No way he can recover especially if you buy membership through a way that isn't bonds.

You charge only 5 mill more for getting full void than you do getting a firecape?

Firecape takes less than an hour, void will most likely take 10+ hours...
