I got more and more interested at the hacking world and I want so read more about it.
I'm looking for websites\apps\blogs that reports about interesting attacks all over the world (in english).

Here's a few I use:

- + HackRead (hackread.com)
- + Dark Reading (darkreading.com)
- + Security Affairs (securityaffairs.co)
- + The Hacker News (thehackernews.com)

Looking forward to seeing what other members post. ?

just checked out HR and the first thing I see is: "Hackers can take over Smart Dildos and stream videos online"
now I'm thinking about pen-testing jokes..

thanks!

I guess you could say that the device needs to be 'hardened' before deployed. ?

Also, if you're interested in the actual vulnerabilities, there's a list here: internetofdon.gs/reports/

Enjoy, OP. ?

wow. this is awesome!

I've never believed that someone will think about hacking to sex toys. this guy is a genius..

Thanks :)
