Thread: Skill - Official Rainbow Six Siege Gaming Tournament! | Enter Now! | 1v1 | Prizes

Lufasu - April 6, 2017, 12:30 pm

We have been planning this for a while and we are excited to announce that we have finally launched a Rainbow Six Siege Tournament for all HF members.

Everyone is welcome to register and enjoy the tournament. Special and exciting prizes will be given out and overall, you'll have a blast playing in this tournament. Registration is completely free but a check-in will be required before the tournament begins from the participants to make sure that you will actually be available to play during the specified time-period.

Start Time: April 20, 2017 (5pm CST)

How to register: A form will be added below.

Platform: PC

Prizes: $300 USD and Skill invitation to top 4

Information: The tournament is going to have elimination matches, which means 1v1 matches, which will be hosted on a server in EU/NA. The registration page will display the participants and their respective regions, which will in-turn be assessed by us to choose the more popular region.

Register: Your nick:

We look forward to seeing you in our tournament, This thread will be updated in case there are any developments/updates. Stay tuned and we wish you the best of luck!

Tournament Rules:

1. Using glaz is forbidden, as it is unfair in 1v1 due to his ability to see through smokes.
 2. Using montange/other shields is also forbidden because you get an advantage and we want to make this a fair and enjoyable match.
 3. Going outside to kill is allowed.
 4. Toxcity/flaming other participants/opponent is not allowed, Respect your opponent, or there may be consequences.
 5. Each match is of BO3 type (best of 3), which means that every member can pick his/her map and there will be 4 rounds(competitive mode) in each match.
change that.
 6. Cheating is not allowed. Same goes for scripting/botting, A member who is caught using scripts/cheats will be banned from all the future tournaments and black-listed from skill.
 7. Game mode will be Plant-The-Bomb, so both of the sides will have time to play.
 8. Spawnkills are forbidden. Please don't spawnkill because the round will not count.
 9. Player ping must be below an average of 150. Players with a constant ping of higher than 150ms may be asked to leave the game and replaced due the ping advantage.
- For any rule suggestion or any other suggestion to this tournament please PM one of the admins.
