Vea
Merge
Drek
Vape
Spook

(all paid) Very good clients though from what I've heard , and I've had personal experience with Vape and recommend that

Just a quick note, original Vea dev quit after it was cracked within a day. He's a nice guy.

Spook is out of date, I wouldn't recommend using it as a ghost client.

I make merge, so if you buy that you're a cool guy :P

DarkTheDev - April 7, 2017, 2:52 pm

Vea was an unreliable client, Merge is a randy wannabe client like Gorilla client. Drek is terrible and so is Kurium. Vape and Spook are good, the best client I have paid for though is Houston which is a more ghost version of a custom hacked client, or Az*, which is an forge mod client, with destruct. The dev updates n I can hook u up with him if you PM me.

Up to you though, if you dont want az i recommend houston or vape lite.

best ghost clint is dej's ghost clint: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=XmvglQ8RagY&t=201s>

Verbless - April 8, 2017, 9:42 pm

vape lite seems to be fairly good.

I feel like ghost clients lack so many features are kinda pointless imo

Wet Noodle is good, unknown so pretty hard to find in ss

Nexai - April 13, 2017, 5:54 pm

Wet Noodler is my favorite

Their all shit, If anyone wants real hq quality go find a coder that can actually code not scrap the vape leaked launcher,

I currently have a ghost client that took me 2 months to make, The mac id system is Polymorphic.

It uses Reflective dll injection, and routes thru a microsoft dev ip kind of like a backdoor,

Hidden instances are always a good thing and spoofing extensions is even better, (doesn't exactly have to be fud add it to the exception list name that shit password.txt no staff gonna be touching that) xspreez - May 9, 2017, 12:39 pm

There are many ghost clients in some laby mods, they are good af
