Thread: Luckiest day of my life.. So far

Lives - April 7, 2017, 12:50 pm

Weirdest thing has happened to me 2 days ago. Was on my way back from the city, and my GPS was giving us the fastest way which was a way we've never taken before. So on the way back, we had to stop at a bathroom and we were a bit hungry so we stopped at an Oasis. I decided to buy a few scratch offs. I spent about $50 on scratch offs alone, 3 of the same $10 games and 1 $20 game. So the first 2 scratchers were losses. The third one, the LAST number I scratched, I didn't scratch it all the way so I thought I had a $10 winner. Ended up scratching it all the way and I read $1,000. I nearly passed out. The crazy part, it was a lucky penny my mother gave me. She held onto it since my auntie died. She kept it in a bag with a comfort cloth sort-of thing. The even crazier part, on the $20 scratcher, I won $100. Later that day, went to the bowling alley, won $125 on the slot machine.

I think I had a lucky day, haha.. ?
