You're welcome Plugs, I'm glad we had the time to work together. :Blackhat:

Nice to see a person making money! Goodluck with your method.

Congratulations on your earnings! If you want to earn more, let me know and we can upscale your business with more ways to increase your income on autopilot.

By the way, I have an excellent service for private investigators to use.

PM me to discuss either or both

Grats again! Scale up, earn more and make a job out of it, dude.

That's good, I'm happy for you. Personally, I haven't had any friends here that would help me make any money or even introduce me to anything here, a lot of people I've known have been rather self-centered but I don't blame them because not everybody wants to share or help others. Anyway, I hope you earn more bro, keep at it :)

Not that crazy considering you're selling this:

"I make $250+ a day" lol, i love fake ebooks <3 and then another " $50 - 250 Daily!"

(The book might actually work, but if you made $250 a day, then the 600 in a week wouldn't exactly be hype lol)

Anyway, sorry, it's my instinct to harass all ebook sellers, nice actual $50 - $250 earnings a day :) Spend it on something irl, like some new clothes, watch etc..

Nice Job :)
