Out of food and low on health. Could someone bring me 5 pieces of food (lobbies, monkfishies, anything) to the Temple of Light? I'll pay you back after the quest of course.

Yeah, you need to have done Mourning End's Part I and started Part II I think.

I'm outta here.

Honestly going there to give food ain't that bad. And this quest isn't. The only cancerous part are the agility obstacle you have to go twice. The whole puzzle takes what... 30 minutes? So you could just have someone sitting there with a few pots (though I had extras at the end) and food, and trade him if needed. That's it.

Gratz on taking out one of the most cancerous quests
