Thread: Mr. Robot is Batman Confirmed

???ro - April 8, 2017, 8:42 pm

Everyone knows Mr. Robot as a doxing god, multi finder and a l33t haxor but what if he's Batman. I'm being serious here, don't leave the thread quite yet.

Here's the Theory:

Mr. Robot is in his mid 30s-ish so let's go back 17 years or so.

In 1990 Mr Robot's parents were killed at a young age after going to the cinema to watch Back To The Future Part 3, they went through the Crime Alley right by Fun Society arcade where his parents were mugged and killed by an unknown assailant at the time, This part is important.

Traumatized by what happened he studied criminology, forensics and criminal psychology and learned hand to hand combat from man-hunters and martial artists learning fighting styles.

He returned to Coney Island, New York where he became Mr. Robot. Eventually he got some information that the person who killed his parents was known to have multiple accounts on the Russian hacking forum known as HackForums.

On that day, the 10th of April 2015 he joined and vowed to get rid of as many multis as he could while trying to find the person responsible for killing his parents.

He needed to make money so he submitted his plebling of an idea to the corporate fat cat company USA Network where they started to start a TV Show about Mr. Robot.

Mr. Robot became a legend and a threat to multis all through HackForum's underworld. The dope smoking hacker eventually met Captain James Gordon aka Minimalist, a HackForums cop who didn't approve of how Mr. Robot was doing it so they fought but Minimalist wasn't powerful enough and Mr. Robot beat him down. Minimalist knew Mr. Robot was too much to handle so got the Leader Omniscient to hire him.

Eventually it became well known that Mr. Robot was working for Omniscient, everyone joked he was a fed but it came to a point where even Brian Krebs was wanting to start to hire him. That's when it happened, The dope smoking hacker from the small like Forum started working for Brian Krebs to aid in his search for the multi who killed his parents.

Edit: We have located the following piece of evidence of him admitting to being Batman. Click Here

What were you watching on Netflix?

But nah, Batman is kinda my hero so don't compare him to a 30 yr/old hacker. (No offense, much love Sir. Robo)

HeyBuddy - April 8, 2017, 8:49 pm

you need to go outside and stop meming it's too far

Breaking Bad. Was made 7 years ago but fuck, still haven't watched it xD

Did you not get anything from this post?

Batman = Mr. Robot

so Mr. Robot is your hero.

30 Minutes is all it took to dox Mr. Robot, you can do it yourself.

Pretty coincidental, actually. I was reading the appeal by Sift and someone linked a thread and then I saw your post; I had a flash back to this thread.

appeal by Sift? Why is your life so sad.

Also can like you not expose my identity.
