Thread: [\[\$150 BTC Prize\] \[Skill\] League of Legends EUW Tournament: Signup Today!](#)

Sir - April 11, 2017, 3:32 am

So what's this?

To compensate for not giving EU players much of an opportunity to participate in our NA tournament scheduled for April 20th, we are going to also host a tournament to give you guys a chance to reap the same rewards. :)

How will the tournament work?

The tournament will be a 1v1 tournament. First blood, first tower or 100 CS is the winner. Opponents will be matched in an undisclosed manner. The winner will receive $150 in BTC.

There is a limit of 32 participants. The rounds will be single elimination.

Requirements to signup:

- You must be Level 30.
- This is for EUW (Europe - West), region only.

Time of the tournament:

Wednesday, April 26th, 2017
@6PM UTC

To signup, reply to this thread with the form filled out:

Code LoL Summoner Name:

Discord Tag:

Do you agree that you are available at the time of the tournament to play?

Thanks, and we look forward to seeing signups!

Discord is web-based and making an account is completely free. We're not telling you to start using discord regularly, but for this tournament we're using it as the quickest way to maintain communication with the participants.
