(Apr 12, 2017 09:03 AM)Antonsen Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Few months ago i watched a really sick movie of a guy who was doing illegal things to make some extra bucks. I can't say on the forum what he was doing as that is against the rules. But this is the best movie i've ever watched! Even Mr. Robot is not better then this movie.

When done watching the movie. Let me know. I will be giving out $50 for the person who writes a good review about the movie.

I am pretty sure it's against the rules to link to this movie.

Review about the movie :

It's really fucked up since that guy going jail for 2 years (i don't remember how much) after stealing banks/cc also his best friend dying and his gf don't even care about him while he is in jail.

I watched it like 1 month ago.

Pls my 50$ now.
