Thread: [>>>STEAM DEVELOPER BADGE<<< INSTANTLY WITHIN 5 MIN!
\[PAYPAL/BITCOIN/SKINS\]](#)

1tap - April 15, 2017, 10:05 am

Hello, I saw a recent post about a steamworks badge selling page and figured why in the world would they do that... but then i realized they got greenlit and could do it.. i never went through that process so i may be in luck doing this without getting caught.

What is a Steamworks Developer Badge?

- A Steamworks developer badge is a badge you get when you become a developer such as advertising, graphic designer, or all in general anything for working on top of a game. However, you can get some if you publish other people's games or been on steam since the very beginning with no vac bans and for being a community moderator which is what i am. I can publish anyones game + get them a steamworks badge.

What does the Steamworks Badge look like?

How many can you give?

- 2 per day.

How much will it cost?

-Make an offer, first few can be cheap (cheap being around $50) and would have the price going up the more it sales.

How will the transaction go?

- Buyer will go first.

Can't you remove the badge?

- Yes & No, what do i mean? well i can remove the badge but it has to be put through another pass through meaning has to have a valid reason... but wait i thought you could remove it instantly? i heard it from thi... No i'm not a greenlight developer so it doesn't work the same way so if i remove your badge it will go through moderation and they send you an email saying your status has been revoked from the steamworks developer including your badge, it will allow you to respond to it stating what happened, you can easily tell them you bought one from me and get me removed so yes i'm risking my reputation on steamworks for this, and if you ask why... well i need the money in all honesty regardless of what you think.

WHO IS THE ONE RESPONSIBLE OF PUBLISHING THE STEAMWORKS BADGES?

- I can't really say... but here's the publishes profile

<https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=3535586>

Please note if you do get one from me, i'd appreciate a vouch or some people saying it was trust worthy and it went through smoothly.

Thanks again for this opportunity, if you have any questions of the legitimacy or in general feel free to ask. ?

No refunds after 10 days if something would happen.
we will only refund if the badge gets removed for whatever reason.

do not tell people you bought the badge otherwise it CAN result in a community ban

NO LONGER SELLING

Vouch.

legit seller, reals is a fat fuck

Astraxi - April 16, 2017, 1:15 am

Vouch for 1tap, he is 100% legit.

Reals is a lying piece of shit. Reals used to be old reseller of this badge, but then decided to scam his partner ThatOneDeveloper. ThatOneDeveloper wanted to find legit partner, so he is working together with 1tap now. Alot of users have already been scammed by Reals, and screenshot proof can easily be provided, so reals should expect scam report incoming soon.

It won't due to the 4 other developer comps, just watch out for unlegit services such as the one that oReals just posted and scammed about $800 worth of csgoskins, keys, btc, and paypal money. Make sure you ask for proof, he didn't even have a steamworks developer badge himself Imfao.

But yes it will stay around for a very long time with our service, so you don't have to worry about losing it with us.

The service may be legit when you get it and all, but they WILL revoke the badge, and the information they provide is all FAKE. This is your only warning.

Everyone ignore oReals. I got a badge from oReals and it was revoked, 1tap got me one in a quarter of the time and it is still there.

ONLY BUY BADGES FROM 1TAP.

Yes, i'm the same developer, i left oReals after he scammed and stole over $800 in sales and revoked users badges, Why do you think i'm working with a new partner?

If you haven't checked the replies to this thread i'd highly suggest doing so, some of the users that were scammed by reals i gave badges to completely FREE so maybe you should check the replies before commenting something stupid like that.

I have an open scam report and he threw you under the bus. As I mentioned, I said the claim was from oReals. I was just simply stating the information I have gotten. If you are truly righting his wrongs then I apologize. I was just putting out the information I was given so everyone can have all sides before making judgement. Also do you have any proof the he scammed you that may correct any doubts anyone has.

He gave me my badge back since I paid the Dev directly not oReals.

Yes, over 8 customers i have proof with, including chat logs through skype & steam with him directly telling me his scammed them and took my money because i wasn't paying him enough... even though i was already paying him 10%.
