G*59 - April 16, 2017, 4:54 pm

Just argue with her about the many topics feminists are well educated on, such as the wage gap, or male patriarchy.

Prophet Banana - April 16, 2017, 5:20 pm

Put dick in microwave when flacid, shut the door and heat for 5 minutes for testicular cancer.

1 in 4 women are homeless, life is unfair to them but they will prevail. If only men understood how much they struggle and would sign to stop their suffrage.

Vitani's Mate - April 16, 2017, 5:38 pm

I'd probably move out.

I cannot stand feminists, they fucking piss me the fuck off.

I also had bad run in with a few of the scum.

I've done both of those things and she just has a closed mind. so annoying. she's also the type of retard that thinks black lives matter is actually helping improve equality between whites and blacks. because burning down your own cities and preventing people from driving on public roads makes your race not seem annoying and dangerous. right.

My girlfriend tries to be a feminist, I constantly put on Hunter for her, she settles back down. I'm worried I'll have to trade her in for one with a brain.

Pewlariiz - April 18, 2017, 12:16 am

If you have ever had a debate with her you probably have cancer so no worries. If the doctor still tells you otherwise, tell her that feminists creates their own problems and that se should be for equality and not for one gender rising above the other.

deadsh0t - April 18, 2017, 12:20 am

aks her what you should do if a person hits you first if she replies walk away ask here what you should do if a person keeps hitting you

She will probably reply hit back

After that ask her but what if the person is a women ?

If she says you dont hit women you just reply

But i thought women wanted to be treated equally and could endure the same as man this way you are telling me a women has the privilege of hitting people whenever she want and get away with it wich is really sexist
