Thats insane man!

I really like the design and the expression you got out of the buffalo's (or whatever it is) face. Shows some hard work.

Although you should consider including some colors, as it seems pretty ordinary with just a greyish design, unless thats what you're going for ?

Overall, incredebly nice design in my opinion. ?

Keep up the good work, have seen you somewhere else with another nice design aswell!

Really nice design! Extremely well done, looks like it took some time. I agree it could have used some color, but hey, it's what your client requested and looks amazing nonetheless

Oracle - April 20, 2017, 9:36 am

Ocho023 - April 20, 2017, 7:03 pm

That's fucking tough dude, I'm legit psyched to see that on a real t-shirt, like that is a quality design right there.

it's for my client ,so of course this might be available in the market soon ..

even though i haven't heard that gymwear name yet ?

OrbitalData - April 21, 2017, 11:20 pm

Very nice design man. This is my personal opinion, so take it with a grain of salt. I think it would look better colored. I think it looks a little dull due to being black/white. But the design is very well done!

"Nemesis" looks good, seems like it has veins or something? Maybe try adding some veins to this minotaurs arms too?

Zanwald - April 27, 2017, 9:36 pm

It's good looking. But strikes me as a generic coreldraw design for some reason. Sorry for the shitty input.
