I think you missed the whole point about ViewModel.

The right answer was "It's right, I did not really understand, thanks to pointing it this to me, I'll read some documentation and improve my code", and not this retarded answer "I'm the best fuck you, you are jealous".

I didn't said "fuck you, you are jelous". That's something that you make up from your mind. But you know everytime that i am asking an opinion in the programming community what i take ?? Downvotes and no help. And i have to begg.. and eat the downvotes and the bad behavior.. in order to get a scratch of what i want. Everyone says that everything is bad... but no one help... And this is happening in dreamincode, stack overflow and all of these shitty forums.. that i take 1 hour to read the regulations... and i still take the downvotes. so that way i am challenging you. Prove me that you do not "just talk" in order to jyst say something. I am sick of the programming community... so if you have something to tell me.. send me a PM. If you have an improvement made it... stop talking. I heard enough.

If you get downvoted everywhere you go, maybe you are the problem. I've over 40K reputation on StackOverflow and never encountered this kind of issue, I'm probably lucky!

Your behavior will not lead you anywhere, some introspection can be useful sometimes, think about it.

Yeah... you are right. I need to make an introspection.... that i am not a bad person that wants to make critic behind a screen... i am human being that it wants to be respected ... So.. since I am the problem i will leave. This world clearly isn't for me. Bye bye.

You are acting like a spoiled kid. What's the point of posting your source if you just want to us to compliment you?

No idea about @OP app (seems he modified the thread), but in you have identical tool (I guess identical by post title) in the 1st page C# forum section.
