Thread: Get a SW Shield in 9mm or .40 for under \$250

These guns run around $350 new in retail stores around here, so this is a killer deal on an awesome weapon. Note there is a rebate that gets it to this low of a price

Ohh yeah, online gun sales are going on like crazy right now. If youve never done it before, you will need to research it a bit first but here is the basic process:

You first have to qualify to purchase the weapon... In this case be 21+ and in the USA. Once you pay for the weapon they ship it to a local gunstore with an FFL license (this just means they are licensed to do the background checks and can legally sell people guns) once the gun arrives to the FFL you just go fill out the info, they run a quick background check, and they sign it over to you. As a side not most FFL people charge a $20 fee, dont pay much more than that.
